

GASLAMP QUARTER IN SAN DIEGO

Rich with history dating back to 1850, the Gaslamp Quarter has become a hot spot in San Diego. Although Gaslamp was once a "red light" district, the neighborhood has since been developed into a vibrant and exciting area of the city. As you enter under the archway, you will discover nineteenth-century architecture settled upon brick sidewalks lined with gas lamps, taking you back in time. With nearly 200 restaurants, bars, shops, and galleries, the Gaslamp Quarter is a bustling neighborhood filled with experiences waiting to be had.

Browse our guide of the best places to dine, visit, and shop while exploring the Gaslamp Quarter!

FOR FOODIES

Photo provided by Union Kitchen & Tap.

UNION KITCHEN & TAP

Union Kitchen & Tap invites guests into their warm atmosphere with wood furnishings and modern decor. Specializing in the 'craft', they serve up local craft beer, handcrafted cocktails, and delicious New American food. Guests looking to visit the San Diego Convention Center will find the Union Kitchen to be the ideal place for lunch or dinner!

Website: gaslampunion.com

Photo courtesy of Searsucker San Diego.

SEARSUCKER

Fresh seafood from the coast, locally brewed beer, and a killer brunch menu makes Searsucker a go to spot for breakfast, lunch, and dinner when visiting the Gaslamp Quarter.

Website: searsucker.com

FLORENT RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

Located in the Old City Hall Building, the recently opened Florent Restaurant & Lounge combines San Diego's culinary and nightlife scene in one establishment. Dine on tequila steamed edamame while sipping on their signature old fashioned. After your meal is finished, grab another drink and stay for the live music or DJ performance.

Website: florentsd.com

ROMANTIC NIGHT OUT

LOU & MICKEY'S

Nothing makes date night more special than steak and lobster. Enjoy premium cuts of meat and fresh seafood while relaxing in the swanky cocktail lounge ambiance. Lou & Mickey's is truly an old school steakhouse and seafood restaurant, making it ideal for your romantic night out.

Website: louandmickeys.com

CAFE SEVILLA

If you're looking to spice up the night head to Cafe Sevilla. The authentic tapas bar has been serving up delicious small plates since 1987 and is known for their weekly Flamenco Dinner Show. If you can't make it to the show, no need to worry - Cafe Sevilla's nightclub features live music and dancing, seven nights a week. Reservations are highly encouraged as this local hot spot is always a full house.

Website: cafesevilla.com

THIRSTY

THE TIPSY CROW

San Diego's longest standing bar invites you to 'abandon your inhibitions' and stop in for a drink. The large, three story bar features an upscale lounge with fireplaces and pool tables, a sports bar serving up classic dishes, and a nightclub with dance floor and stage. No matter what mood you are in, you're bound to have a good time at The Topsy Crow.

Website: thetipsycrow.com

THE SHOUT! HOUSE

Sing-a-long to dueling pianos at The Shout! House. One of the most entertaining venues in the Gaslamp Quarter, visitors spend the night watching dueling pianos and singers perform today's hits and the classics for a fun and energetic competition.

Website: theshouthouse.com

BUB'S

Constructed with various pieces from salvaged architecture along the coast, Bub's is not your average sports bar! Spend your day playing shuffleboard, getting to know your neighbors at one of the community tables, or simply chowing down on food while you watch the game.

Website: bubssandiego.com

BAKERIES & BOUTIQUES

CUTE CAKES

Cute Cakes will cure any sweet tooth. Visitors to Cute Cakes can indulge in flavors such as Salted Vanilla Caramel, Death by Chocolate, and Red Velvet, freshly baked and frosted each morning.

Website: cutecakes-sd.com

BUBBLES BOUTIQUE

Bubbles Boutique is all about creating a fun shopping experience and style with unique clothing, jewelry, and accessories. The boutique also supports local San Diego Artists and women entrepreneurs.

Website: bubblesboutique.com

DOLCETTI BOUTIQUE

A hair salon and clothing boutique in one, Dolcetti is a one stop shop for style and fashion. Browse the latest trends, get a fresh haircut, and pick up an outfit for your night out in the Gaslamp Quarter.

Website: dolcettiboutique.com

BUSINESS TRAVELERS

CHIANTI

What better way to discuss business than over a delicious meal? Known for its Italian cuisine with a Mediterranean accent, Chianti's has a beautiful patio, private dining area, and fresh flowers on each table.

Website: chiantirestaurantsd.com

HAPPY HOURS

Grab a cold one after a long day of business meetings! There are plenty of bars and restaurants to choose from in the Gaslamp Quarter featuring happy hour specials.

Website: gaslamplocal.com

TRANSPORTATION

The Gaslamp Quarter offers metered parking, surface lots, parking garages, and valet service, giving you many options to park your rental car. For those taking public transportation, check out the San Diego Transit Planner to navigate your trip to the Gaslamp Quarter with ease. Also consider using Uber, the convenient app that connects riders to taxis, private cars, or rideshares in minutes.

Website: gaslamplocal.com